Subject: the actual story impt

Ive got half an hour now and im making time to do this so you know the actual story then maybe you and your mates will stop slagging me now donald dewar was a mess. I had a house in his constituency he was desperate to get people on his campaign team who were not idiots

John smith had been on my interview panel when I was interviewed for my first job

I had been a labour [party member since I was sixteen so anyway I lived in jordanhill alot of donalds constit was drumchapel and full of halfwits and jordanhillwas the biggest branch

Anyway election where eric joyce was selected for falkirk west it was that one

I was opn four shortlists for fopur seats each witht hings like twenty thousand majorities anniealand falkirk west and two others joyce sent the sun newspaper to harass jim devine also on the falkirk west shorlist joyce couldnt do that with me because I had worked for the sun as a trainee lawyer so the sunday mail was doing over the wrays and every lawyers in scotland levy and macrae acted fro the sunday mail i knew the principla partner of levy and macae had known him for years anyway at the same time alex rowley the ex general secretary of the party in scotland had a crush on me but then who wouldnt im gorrgeous!!!

I was married and had two small kids in teh house relatives and I was doorstopped about laura walker who was gouing through the biggest defamation case of its time in scotland her father had hired me years before and I had walked out after two weeks because she was insane park school for girls nutcase

I was advised by promionenet m,embers of the glasgow bar association where I had been a member not to go to that firm because sher was a who e and nutcase. those were the wrods.

anyway I thought they were just being backstabbing guys the worrs were dont go to that firm youll end up in the sunday mail. all ther staff do unbeknown to me this laura walker was getting a divorce and had married this jommy wray mp for baillieston and was having a kid

I didnt know any6 of this but did know catherine davidson ex cleint of a previous firm and I knew her through a keep fit gym thing she was jimmy s second wife walker was he third and there was a first wife too!!!!!!!

meanwhile this complete tube called madge oneill catholic labour party mafia and drumchapel twit was desperate to get me off the shortlist so was john robertson now an mp the hugest one in the commons and currently being questioned over offences meanwhile stephen purcell in dewars constituency was going around doing all sorts he was all over the scottish press for about twnety weeks which is unprecedented for various mental health and drug addiction [problems. he was stirring everything for everyone and determined to get robertson in

I was working 155 million hours in another law firm and did not know all of this was happening

I knew dewar was ill and doing sweet f all about anything but that was all I knew!!!

I just thought purcell was a failed wee fat catholic failed priest

I didn't even know he was gay but I did know he drank gin all the time anyway I got done over and sued and the thing should have been removed from google but wasn't anyway I sued again and won of course meanwhile the day

I found out I'd been done over I called levy and macrae who said their lawyers had not been on duty that night

THAT LATER TURNED OUT TO BE A LIE

so I called the other lawyers all of whom I knew who acted for the Sunday Mail in various capacities so I got tape recorded calls they all denied they were on duty which has proved correct

Oh we wouldn't have let that defamatory story through type thing and that was correct

I went to five firms to sue for defamation and one took it on the best one costing a fortune to me

It settled

cameron fife's old firm acted for the Sunday Mail on certain nights he said the article was atrocious and everyone to a man blamed levy and macrae levy and macrae and black jack thingme acted for Stephen Purcell years later in the cases Opus Dei paid for

When Stephen Purcell was accurately reported on for his dodgy deeds I called the Morya MP the SNP chap and said look I'm staying out of this which I always have done. I know Nicola etc etc he was an ex-journalist and pointed out this shit was still on Google oh says I counsel told me it was off and never appeared it transpired the wrays had been up to more dodgy dealings so they shoved my thing and other back on Nicola had also worked at Drumchapel Law Centre and she had nothing but trouble from Madge O'Neill John Robertson etc etc.

the whole lot of them were gangsters

I stood there as a favour to Dewar

Wendy Alexander stayed out of it because she was hopeless

When they wanted rid of Wendy I was called and I just said to the journalist "toast" when he asked how long has she got???

the whole country was ruled by these idiots for years and then a get you a toyboy constantly referring to it all

Alan who is a lawyer said not to tell you because you are too young to understand well I feel happier that you know

I know where the bodies are buried in that Labour party

I was married my hubby was ill and died suddenly

Purcell it transpires is gay and difficult and an alcy and druggo robertson is being investigated dewar died

noone mourned

wendy always was a wee nobody all of the women candidates in that selection got the same treatment cos we were all going round wex boyfriedns going we did not shag did we wed are all virgins etc etc noown could catch me dfoing anything else cos im very well behaved even the bloody law society were engineerd by walker into giving a flase quote the press officer for the law society was bottom of my year at uni she had to retake and retake she also went to park school for girls she was off duty and the press officer gave the wrong quote

LSS gave me an apology

The pcc upheld my complaint now dont you go on to me re typos cos im over my half hour and got to go so before you open your mouthg you should think richard

I gave all my files to folk like nicola moved here to requalify in this jurisdiction and hey presto the snp won the next scottish election.

You are not stupid but I dont think yo9u are as clever as me few men are and they resent it

Jimmy wray died last year

I had a massive party her night he died he was a paedophile wife beater and rapist of his wife the secopnd mrds wray

We have all seen her medical notes

I hate tyhese labour party catholic mafia people with a vengeance

They are gangsters

Now Im going

Ive gopt work to do
